Extinguishing the Chalice:

"Hello," said Seed.

Grub continued rooting around.

Grub eyed the seed hungrily.

"Will you grow food?"

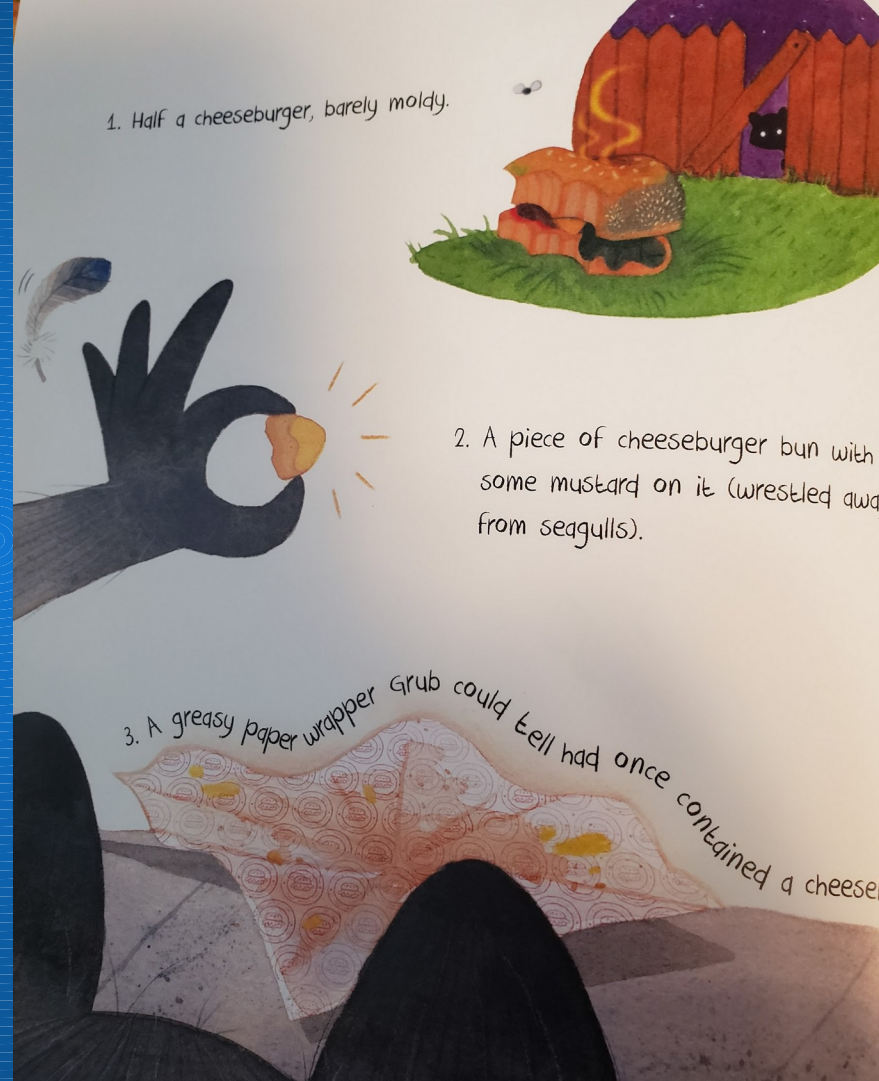

"I am not sure," Seed admitted.

"Could you grow cheeseburgers?"

1. Half a cheeseburger, barely moldy.

2. A piece of cheeseburger bun with some mustard on it (wrestled away from seagulls).

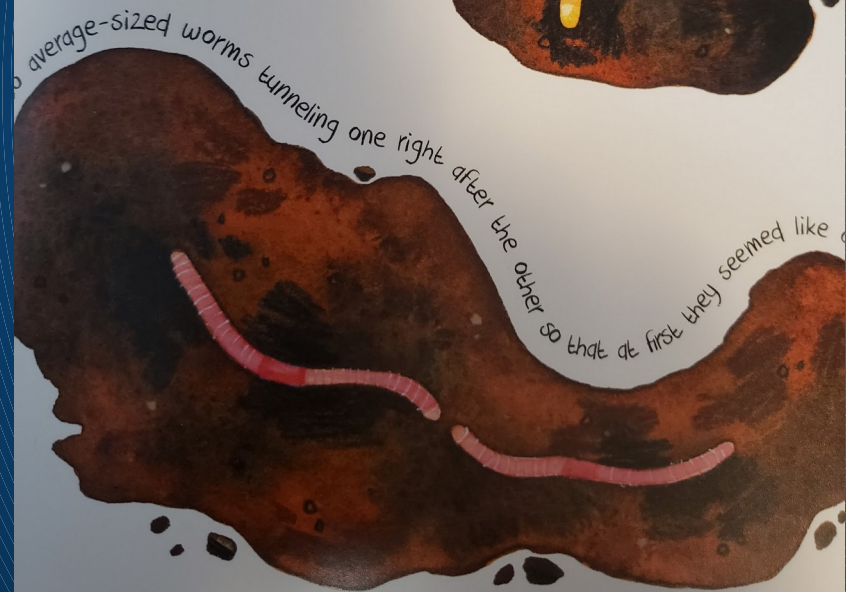

3. A greasy paper wrapper grub could tell had once contained a cheese

1. A long worm tunneling.

A slightly shorter worm tunneling.

Two average-sized worms tunneling one right after the other so that at first they seemed like one.

slowly,

things began to change.

"Hello again," said Seed.

That evening, Grub and Seed celebrated. Grub had a greasy piece of cardboard he was almost certain had once been the bottom of a pizza box. Seed had water.

"To the future!"

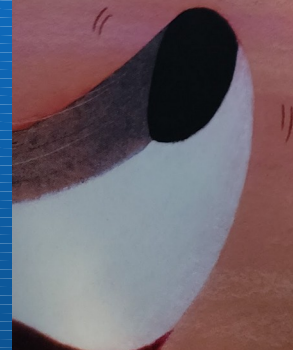

... Seed bloomed.

"Are the cheeseburgers ready?!" asked Grub.

"Grub," Seed started

"No. About flowers."

"Oh. What are you thinking about flowers?"

"Well. The same."

This is Seed.
Seed is a flower.
See?

And this is Grub.
Grub is a gardener.
